ARTILLERY BAND GIVING REGULAR DAILY CONCERTS

The Artillery Band at Fort Kamehameha has commenced its series of outdoor concerts. There will be regular concert programs every evening from Monday to Friday inclusive at about 8:20 o'clock each evening. Since there is no suitable bandstand as yet with proper acoustics the open air hall at the back of headquarters is to be used until such time as Colonel Rafferty decides upon a suitable bandstand location.

Mr. Safranek has been selecting some very fine programs for these concerts, the following being the list for this evening:
Overture, Festival—Leutner.
Valse Militaire—Waldteufel.
Scenes from Coppelia—Delibes.
Song, The Holy City—Adam (by request).
Melodies from Bohemian Girl—Balle. (By request.)
Captain French is exerting himself to furnish a high-class entertainment for the post in the theater, having had several vaudeville performances lately, with more coming, as also the best moving pictures that the islands afford. He has also installed a five-piece orchestra that is giving considerable pleasure.

ADmits THAT HE STOLE AND ENDS LIFE WITH RIFLE

After admitting a theft with which he was charged, Pvt. Fred Bruggenschmidt, Company F, 2nd Infantry, committed suicide yesterday at Fort Shafter by shooting himself with a rifle.
Bruggenschmidt had been ordered to attire himself in fatigue clothing in preparation for the guard house, and went to the rifle racks, getting the rifle with which he took his life.
Bruggenschmidt had been in Hawaii since July 14, 1914, having enlisted in the service at Cincinnati, Ohio, on May 12 of that year.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
Comdr. Sgt. and Mrs. Lee Cohen were hosts at a delightful dinner party Friday evening at their quarters in the cantonment in honor of their eighth wedding anniversary. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns, sweet peas and tropical flowers. Attractive Japanese place cards marked the places of the 18 guests. Those present who enjoyed the delightful evening were: Color Sgt. and Mrs. Clarkson, Ord. Sgt. and Mrs. Dysart, Q-M. Sgt. and Mrs. Ely, Sgt. Maj. and Mrs. Burns, Sgt. Maj. and Mrs. Blume, 1st Sgt. and Mrs. Whitaker, Cpl. and Mrs. Rosen, Mrs. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Marlow.

Target practice is the all absorbing subject at the fort at present and every morning and afternoon one can find squads busily engaged in gallery practice and getting instruction in the art of shooting. Lieut. Polhemus with his details is getting the range in excellent condition and by April 1, when the 2d Battalion will commence its work on the range, all will be in readiness. The 3d Battalion will follow the 2d and the 1st Battalion will go on last.

The new hop committee for March has been named and they have announced an informal dance for Friday evening. The members of the new committee are Capt. William B. Cochran, Capt. Thomas R. Harker, 1st Lieut. John B. Richardson and 2d Lieut. F. A. Sloan and A. K. Polhemus.

Regimental Q-M. Sgt. Retires.

Regimental Q-M. Sgt. Svante N. Soderblom has completed the time of active service, and is now awaiting the sailing of the transport for the United States. He has served with the 1st Regiment of Infantry continuously since the date of his enlistment in 1891, at which time the regiment was stationed at Fort McDowell, Cal. He has worked his way into the ranks of non-commissioned officers from the beginning, and some 15 years ago was transferred to the non-commissioned staff, since which time he served the regiment as quartermaster sergeant.

Sgt. Soderblom was with the regiment during the Spanish-American war in Cuba in 1898, and was a member of the "Guskie" expedition, the first punitive expedition to land on Cuban soil. His retirement will remove from the regiment (if not from the active enlisted service of the army) the last survivor on the active list of that expedition, in which was comprised two companies of the regiment. He later served with the regiment through the trying days of the insurrection in the Philippines.

His record shows that, both in peace and war, in garrison and field, he has at all times and under all conditions ever exhibited that untiring and uncompromising devotion to duty that has made him a most distinguished non-commissioned officer in the regiment.

While his retirement from active service in the regiment which he has served so many years will be a source of regret to all who know him, it is realized that his rest is well earned, and the entire regiment extends to Q-M. Sgt. Soderblom its best wishes for good health and happiness in whatever field the future may find him.

Upon the recommendation of the company commander the following promotion is made in Company A: Cpl. Tom L. Shipp to be sergeant vice Unselt transferred to the non-commissioned staff and promoted to regimental quartermaster sergeant.

Batt. Sgt.-maj. Transferred.

Battalion Sgt.-maj. Michael Bass of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Infantry is transferred to the 4th Infantry, temporarily stationed at Brownsville, Texas. He will sail on the next transport and upon arrival at San Francisco will go on a three months' furlough.

Sgt. Bass is but a young man and will retire from active service within a few years. He served his entire time to date with the 1st Infantry, being first sergeant in Company H for several years, from which rank he was promoted to battalion sergeant-major. His honest and faithful work was well appreciated and it is with regret that the entire regiment extends its best wishes to Sgt.-maj. Bass on his departure.

A furlough for 24 days was granted to Sgt. Roger E. Carlisle, Company F, for the purpose of visiting points of interest in the Hawaiian Islands.

Hansen, civilian employe, Quartermaster Corps (Transport Service), now sick in the Department Hospital, this city, is transferred to the Letterman General Hospital, the Presidio of San Francisco, California.

WAR VETERANS HONOR MEMORY OF HARRIGAN

Impressive Military Funeral Service at National Guard Armory This Morning

United Spanish War Veterans turned out in goodly number this morning at 10 o'clock to pay tribute to the memory of Sgt. Edward Harrigan, retired, who died last week.

Impressive funeral services were held at the National Guard armory here, after which the remains of the deceased officer were escorted to the transport Sheridan, in which they will be taken to the mainland for interment.

Representatives from the 1st Infantry Spanish War Veterans, Camp No. 1, of which Sgt. Harrigan was a member, from the 25th Infantry, and from Mansfield Camp, Spanish War Veterans at Fort Shafter, attended the services.

Chaplain William A. Aiken of the 1st Infantry, Schofield Barracks, delivered the following eulogy during the services:

Had Defended Country's Flag.

"Comrades and Friends:
"The passing of a man out of this mortal life is always an occasion fraught with sorrow and solemnity. Especially so is it when, as in this sad circumstance which has brought us together, the Grim Reaper has taken one with whom many here present have served in garrison and field, in peace and against the hostile foe, in defense of the honor of our country's flag.

"Sgt. Harrigan has well earned his rest. Beginning his service with the 1st Infantry nearly 27 years ago, he served continuously with the regiment until his retirement 2½ years ago. He filled with honor the various non-commissioned grades and was retired with signal honor September 12, 1913, as chief musician. In Cuba and the Philippines he proved himself a gallant soldier in many a trying campaign. With regret the regimental commander referred to his leaving the old regiment, with which he was so loyally identified, in these words:

"His record shows that, in peace and war, in garrison and field, he has at all times and under all conditions, ever exhibited that untiring and uncompromising devotion to duty that has made him a most distinguished non-commissioned officer in the regiment." "I remember a certain day in September, 1913, when the 1st Infantry was formed on the old parade ground at Schofield to do him honor as he left active service. I had but lately joined the regiment and the occasion produced a lasting impression. The regimental commander, in words that evidenced personal regard and appreciation, presented him as a tribute from his old organization with the valuable token which he has worn with as much pride as the wearer of any imperial decoration. The old ties which bound him to the 1st Infantry were strong and his last days were spent within call of his old comrades in arms. We bid him an affectionate farewell until the great reveille, 'while memory guards with solemn round the bivouac of the dead.'"

LEE DESERTS ARMY

Joseph Lee, private in Battery E, 1st Field Artillery, is listed as a deserter in the United States army. He enlisted in the army on September 20, 1915, at Fort Slocum, New York, and deserted at Schofield Barracks on February 19, 1916. His description follows:
